With just days to go, anticipation for the upcoming Vintage Reggae Winter Festival , set for Sunday, February 19, is at a high, as fans prepare to welcome the "Big Ship" captain Freddie McGregor back to South Florida. Freddie is set to share the stage with the Reggae Queen Marcia Griffiths and King Yellowman along with Leroy Sibbles , Charlie Chaplin , Professor Nuts and Little John , making this a show that cannot be missed.

Armed with an extensive repertoire of hits spanning the Studio One days to his current remake of the classic "A House is Not A Home," Freddie is ready to entertain patrons with his delivery of smooth reggae melodies on Sunday at Miramar Regional Park, located at 16801 Miramar Parkway, just west of I-75. A favorite of South Florida audiences, Freddie will have everyone singing, dancing and calling for more when he takes the stage at the premier installment of Vintage Reggae Winter Festival.

Advance tickets can be purchased at selected outlets in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach counties and online at AboveAverageEntertainment.net. An advance VIP package is available, which includes premium parking and refreshment.

Vendors have also shown their enthusiasm for the event, with plans to provide a variety of tasty offerings from Jerk Chicken to Curry Goat and more. Sponsors Grace Foods will be sampling some of their Tropical Rhythm juices and coconut water as well as their popular banana and plantain chips, plus offering prizes to lucky patrons.

The Vintage Reggae Winter Festival is a production of Above Average Entertainment and Pool Players Passion Inc. Sponsors include Grace Foods and the National Weekly .
